"College Admission: What Are Colleges Looking For In A Student?" is a community presentation to assist students and their families to understand the college admission process. This free presentation is suitable for high school students and their families. Younger students and their families are also welcome to attend.

The Hawaii Association For College Admission Counseling is a non-profit organization of professionals working in the realm of college admissions, both on the secondary and post-secondary levels. HACAC members are dedicated to helping students transition to post-secondary opportunities through education, collaboration, and community building.
